

Initial Records Request

When a Medicare auditor knocks on your practice's door or you receive a letter asking for certain medical records, you may feel anxious or nervous. There are a lot of unanswered questions during the initiation of a Medicare audit, and if you need answers or assistance, Liles Parker can help. Importantly, legal consultation before you submit your documentation for review may help in presenting your supportive records effectively. In addition, Liles Parker can help in negotiating longer deadlines and other important issues involved in your case.

If you've received a letter from a ZPIC, RAC, PSC or other CMS contractor, call us today for a free consultation.
